

The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns

invites you to dinner and conversation

“The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict: Prospects for the Future”

Shirin Ezekiel, Israel Program Coordinator, UW-Hillel program staff, Madison Jewish Community Council.
Shirin’s home is Tel Aviv.

George Shalabi, long-time friend of Father Elias Chacour.
George is a Palestinian American Christian,
a native of Haifa, where much of his family lives.

Both presenters are known for their commitment to dialogue and speak from their first-hand knowledge of the Israeli-Palestinian situation.

A question-and-answer period will follow.

Tuesday, June 14, 2005

5:15 p.m.

Marriott Hotel, Middleton

Salons A, B, C

Cost for catered meal: $15.00

(Dinner salad, chicken breast with lemon sauce, potato, vegetable, dinner rolls, dessert.)

Payment is made at the door. Advance reservations are necessary.
(If you reserve a meal, but cannot attend, the cost of the meal will still need to be paid.)

Reservations must be made by June 6

To register, contact: John Hobbins, Columbus United Methodist Church
222 South Dickason Boulevard, Columbus WI, WI 53925
Phone: (920) 623-3625
E-mail: johnhobbins@wisconsinumc.org