Indicate credential of persons in Part II: FD, FE, PD, PE, and AM when requested.)

17. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (§§604.4, 605.6)?

We acknowledge that none of us is blameless in our living and ministry. All of us have fallen short. In our best moments God's grace has enabled us to be faithful in our Christian living and ministry. At other times we have been found wanting, having wandered beyond the bonds of our covenant. Sometimes we have not honored one another's ministry. Some of us find it hard to let go of former congregations and parishioners and insist on returning to those places and people to perform pastoral functions. In so doing we undermine the ministry of our brother or sister who has been appointed there as pastor. Sometimes we have not sought the support of other clergy during days of personal darkness and thus needlessly walked alone. In that personal darkness and ministerial despair, sometimes, instead of seeking help, we have broken our covenant to God and each other through inappropriate behavior and destructive addiction. Sometimes we have not been encouraging, supporting or helpful to clergy brothers and sisters whom we know are going through difficult times. We have been, at times, self-serving in the midst of people who need servant leadership. All this and more has torn at our clergy connection and covenant.

We also acknowledge that we have been called by God whose steadfast love holds us and whose grace is sufficient in all things. It is this love that will yet bind us together to make us one in service to God's world and one in ministry as clergy of the Wisconsin Annual Conference. Blameless? No. Yet, trusting in God's grace we humbly offer ourselves to God's ministry in this world. We trust that as clergy of the Wisconsin Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church we might continue to examine ourselves, recognize our needs for repentance and then live in the hope that we might continue to be transformed by the grace of God. And so we do not lose heart.
