WIESE REUNION HELD AT WEST KEWAUNEE CHURCH

Because the West Kewaunee United Methodist Church is so rich in family history and in the history of Methodism in Wisconsin, it was chosen as the site of the first reunion of the grandchildren of Wilhelm and Maria Wilkowski Wiese and his second wife, Albertina Popp Wiese, pioneers of the West Kewaunee congregation. 104 members of the family and of the congregation joined together in the sanctuary on Sunday, August 30, to hear about the family's place in the history of the church, worship together, and reminisce about the eleven children in the Wilhelm Wiese family.

Both the Popp and the Wiese families are listed among the first ten members of the West Kewaunee German Methodist Episcopal Church, having joined that congregation between 1868 and 1872. Today the West Kewaunee congregation numbers 28, including a granddaughter of Wilhelm and Maria Eleanore Wiese Seifert. The annual budget of the church is $11,000, and the congregation provides for the beautifully maintained church cemetery. The pastor is Robert W. Kuhn, who also serves the Algoma United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Milton Feldt, retired from the Wisconsin Conference, and a grandson of the original family, told the assembled descendants about their Methodist heritage. Wilhelm, the family patriarch, served as a lay preacher of the West Kewaunee Church, as did his son, Ezra. Two other sons, Carl and William, were ordained Methodist ministers and served many years in the Wisconsin Conference. Two daughters married the Rev. Hubert Feldt and the Rev. Robert Gross. Wilhelm's brother-in-law was the Rev. Robert Wilkowske.

In the next generation the Rev. Stanley Wiese, another grandson, was ordained, as well as the Rev. Milton Feldt. In addition, two granddaughters, Marie Wiese and Myrtle Seidel, married the Rev. Al Eliason and the Rev. Lloyd Foster. Other Wiese descendants have served as lay speakers, organists, and choirmasters, as well as in the mission field. Another son of the West Kewaunee congregation who became a minister was the Rev. Arthur Prust.

After the service of worship which included reminiscences, special music by family members, hymns, and a prayer, the family had dinner together. During the afternoon small groups studied the detailed genealogy charts, viewed their ancestor's graves in the cemetery, looked at scrapbooks and pictures, and visited the family homestead nearby.

FALL PILGRIMAGE HELD AT BAY VIEW CHURCH, MILWAUKEE

At the Fall pilgrimage at Bay View Church in Milwaukee, Ruth Pierce, historian for Bay View Church gave a brief history of the church. A partial listing of their history is as follows: Bay View United Methodist Church has always been known as an outreach church. The public school has used this building for educational purposes. The church now provides facilities to teach high school potential drop-outs and has sent out 24 graduates each year.

Bay View celebrated their Centennial this year. They were known as the Methodist Episcopal Church. Bishop Clark came in 1835. The church started holding meetings in the office of a mill. In 1868 they built a log cabin church. In 1873 the mill closed because of the Panic. The people of the congregation helped each other.

They had 200 Sunday School members in 1888. Most were received as church members on probation. Electricity came in 1924. More space was needed, so a basement was added under the sanctuary. In 1991 - 1992 the church members purchased property for a parking lot. In 1941 they had 400 members and a Bible School of 435.

The church changed names several times as other Evangelical and Evangelical United Brethren merged for services. In 1976 they sponsored a Cambodian family and found a house for them to live in. The children grew up and now give gifts at Christmas time to Bay View Church.
