

LEARN, EXPERIENCE, and ENGAGE issues affecting communities, near and far,
and BE EQUIPPED to live as empowered disciples of Christ
who dream of and work for a better and more just world.

Youth and young adults currently enrolled in highschool or college are invited to join the premier seminary,
Outside My Window, to New York City and Washington D.C.

Dates: Saturday, August 11 - Friday, August 17

Peeks of the itinerary Outside My Window: Mercy and Justice Seminar Trip

- ❖ Saturday, August 11
 - Roadtrip from Whitefish Bay, WI to NYC
 - Check into a hostel
- ❖ Sunday, August 12
 - Worship at a culturally-diverse and vibrant church in downtown NYC
 - Chaperoned sight-seeing in NYC
- ❖ Monday, August 13
 - SEMINAR: ACTS OF JUSTICE, led by the United Methodist Women, at the Center of Church across the United Nations Headquarter
- ❖ Tuesday, August 14
 - SERVICE: ACTS OF MERCY, with a non-profit organization
 - Travel to D.C.
- ❖ Wednesday, August 15
 - SEMINAR: ACTS OF JUSTICE, led by the United Methodist General Board of Church and Society across the Supreme Court on the Capitol Hill
 - Chaperoned sight-seeing in D.C.
- ❖ Thursday, August 16
 - Meeting with congregational representatives
 - Visits to national historical attractions
- ❖ Friday, August 17
 - Roadtrip to Whitefish Bay, WI

 Each day will begin with morning devotion and close with a worshipful time for reflection

Be sure to register by May 15. Why? See below!

Seats are limited to only 22.

Total Cost for everything: $520 per person (including seminars, transportation, room and board)

- To help offset this cost, we've applied for two grants. The funds will be distributed if earned.
- Fundraising opportunities will be available during the Annual Conference (June 15-17)
- Individual participants will be responsible for three meals in total during their free time.

Online Registration: <https://goo.gl/GAnb9E>

Contact Pastor Peace Kim, United Methodist Church of Whitefish Bay, pkim@umcwfb.org